Graduating Batch 2016

University of London International Programmes

Message from the Pro Vice-Chancellor (International)

DR MARY STIASNY

The University of London International Programmes is the world's oldest provider of degrees through flexible learning. Our internationally renowned awards have been accessible to students across the world since 1858. Today, we are proud to have more than 54,000 students in over 180 countries.

Teaching institutions have played a central role in the success of the University of London International Programmes over the last 155 years. Not only have they helped us realise our vision of providing a life-changing, high quality university education to those who could benefit, but they have enhanced the learning experience of countless students.

In recognition of this important role, in 2009 we introduced the Teaching Institutions Recognition Framework to formalise our relationships with teaching institutions. This framework aims to create closer links with selected high quality teaching institutions around the world, by recognising those that meet a set of specific quality criteria in respect to the support they provide to International Programmes students.

The Millennium University College is an Affiliate Centre for the University of London International Programmes. This is the highest level of recognition and means that in the considered view of the University of London it demonstrates a sustained commitment to developing excellence in respect of teaching, support to students and administrative processes.

We are delighted that TMUC is a member of our network of recognised centres and we hope that being part of this network will contribute to its ongoing development and result in an even closer relationship with the University of London International Programmes. Ultimately, this will help to ensure that International Programmes students at The Millennium University College have a high quality and rewarding learning experience.

Message from Rector

CHAUDHRY FAISAL MUSHTAQ TI

Welcome to tomorrow, the future of Education. TMUC aims to be an institution of higher learning dedicated to providing innovative undergraduate, graduate, and professional education. By bringing a range of international qualifications home, TMUC aspires to be recognized as the leading institution of borderless education, committed to providing opportunities that exceed local stream of education to the youth of Pakistan. TMUC is currently a provider of transnational education; we have collaborative arrangements with renowned foreign institutions with professional and higher education portfolios.

Our students are passionate, thinkers, innovators, builders, drivers, social scientists of this society and the global village at large. The Graduates of TMUC are ones that will compete with the best in the world and will rise and continue to make their Alma Matter proud. At TMUC our goal is for every student to graduate with international and transformative multicultural and global competencies, whether acquired at home or abroad. In partnership with colleagues in colleges and units across the globe, TMUC is a unique hub of research, service learning, internship and community projects that infuse experiential and intercultural learning and personally enriching experiences into our students' portfolios.

The students at TMUC undertake basic and applied research with a view of revolutionizing the study of entrepreneurship, leadership, technology, social and management sciences and many more; hence scale emerging models and research that could eventually be translated into life-long learning, innovation, education and change for national development. By providing an eclectic portfolio of transnational higher education qualifications, TMUC assists Roots Millennium School's mission and commitment to developing the right set of skills, attitudes, knowledge and values within graduating Millennials so that they can confidently meet the global challenges of the 21st century.

I congratulate the graduating class of University of London at TMUC 2016. My students are a reflection of our commitment to excellence and continuous passion and dedication towards education. I urge my students to partake in social and community building and become agents of change and make us proud. I will always be their teacher, mentor, friend and CFM.

Should you require any further advice or guidance, I would be happy to assist you.

Message from Dean of Academics

SAFIA FAROOQI

The Millennium University College is designed to provide consistent, high quality and appropriate academic advising, monitoring, mentoring, nurturing and coaching to ensure your academic and personal success. We believe that with all the support available, including tutoring and supplemental instruction, all the students are expected to excel.

Your education will foster a sense of lifelong learning that is critical in today's rapidly changing work place and innovation driven global society. You will find here the kind of community that will stimulate your imagination, expand your knowledge and nurture the voice of conscience and compassion that extends the best practices to help create a more just, humane, prosperous and sustainable world for all.

I wish all my graduating class all the success and happiness and pray that their journey with us has been a fruitful one and that they continue to grow and spread joy.

Message from Head of International Programme

KHOLAH YARUQ MALIK

The journey with this graduating batch has been tremendous as I have both learnt and unlearnt with them. We have all acquired roles of teacher and student from time to time. A bond was built, one that retires not. I wish them health, happiness, success and love. Like the philosophy of this great institution, we do not part ways ever and believe in passion for learning, and openness, I hope we stay in fond memories of each other. And smile when we look back at the time spent together under this big sheltering tree TMUC.

One of my favourite things about TMUC is that I feel heard here; not only do I have the best teachers, but I'm also provided with constant guidance and support in regards to my studies and my prospective career. And the best part is that when I graduate I will be awarded a degree by one of the most prestigious universities in the world; University of London.

Diamonds cannot shine unless they are polished and have light thrown at them. This metaphor fits quite adequately on me, considering my relationship with TMUC. When I joined their UoL IP program, I knew precisely what TMUC had and that other schools lacked: opportunities to let me be innovative and to be the best of who I am.

The balance between extracurriculars and scholastic activities not only enabled me to manage workload, but also allowed me to explore options that I needed to choose from in the real world.

My name is Salwa Rana and I'm honoured to be the part of TMUC's first graduating batch. My experience of TMUC has truly been amazing. The teachers and faculty have been like my family, especially ma'am Kholah and ma'am Safia who are always supportive and encouraging to bring out the best in me and everyone else.

There has always been a perfect balance of academics and co-curricular activities on the campus. TMUC provides a perfect university environment and at the same time makes you feel like home. I am proud to have tmuc as my alma mater.

Law was never an easy degree to study. I chose TMUC to pursue my dream of studying law and I feel proud to say that I don't regret it even for second. There were times during this degree when I felt defeated and I wanted to give up but I forged ahead determined not giving up. I have learned from this degree that if you don't succeed at first don't give up stick to it, try again its completely ok. I fell and my teachers and mentors picked me up for the next battle.

Failure is better than not learning anything. You will succeed someday. And all the hard work, failure will be worth it and you will forget everything when you finally collect your degree from the prestigious institution of University of London.

Studying with the University Of London International programmes enabled me to attain a prestigious degree, while pursuing my dream. This programme provides stellar academic training. It is recognised internationally and yet can be obtained in one's home country. This degree not only enhanced my analytical, writing & research skills but also helped me to develop a global approach.

This programme was structured in such a way that it always challenged my thought, process and gave me better perspective on International Development. I have grown personally, academically and most importantly as a global citizen. I look forward to an ever-lasting connection with the University Of London.

BSc Accounting & Finance

Graduating has been a lot tougher for me than for most around me. The two preceding years I had been working full time for an accounting firm, freelancing, and studying towards becoming a chartered accountant. I was studying for my bachelor's with the University of London privately - no tuition, no guidance. Many told me I walked an impossible path. For the final year of my studies I decided to come to TMUC. Mainly because I did not want to risk the final year of my studies and also because I lacked some real college experience.

The college not only provided me with excellent academic guidance, but also with a college experience that made me realise what I had missed out on all these years.

Economics and Management

One word comes to my head when I think of TMUC , it's "opportunity". Opportunity for everything, in academics and life. If you're someone who wishes to polish and enhance their skills, TMUC is the place. TMUC prides itself in its diversity, with people from all sort of academic and personal backgrounds. The high teacher student ratio helps in person development and growth . This has been crucially why I recommend TMUC . Newton said that humans ride an elephant of knowledge at anytime in their life, knowledge that precedes them. This became only clear to me at TMUC.

TMUC will give you an opportunity to extract all knowledge from your professors through maximum personal interaction . Finally , if you're someone looking for friends and fight loneliness, TMUC could help you achieve that by introducing you to more lonely people. The basic analogy is how a negative multiplied by a negative becomes a positive

POLITICS AND IR

Studying Politics and International Relations from University of London was one of the most amazing experiences of my life. This degree does not only improve your intelligence, but also helps in building your intellectual abilities. It has made me grow as a person and helped me see the world in broader perspective. Its been a spectacular journey, making new friends meeting amazing faculty, it always felt like home. I could not have asked for a better place to be at than TMUC.

I'm a proud graduate of UOL - and even prouder to study from TMUC. Let's see what the world has to offer me now.

Politics and IR

I am Jibran Dost a BSc Politics and International Relations student at TMUC. I want to dedicate this degree to my parents, who supported me through these years and my her, all this would never have been possible.

I made great friends and they gave me a lot of things that I will remember for the rest of my life. My journey was filled with energy and emotions. Thank you to all the people who made it beautiful for me.

Asad Taimoor

BSc Politics and IR

Being part of the UOL international program at TMUC has been an overwhelming experience. As a student of international relations I have had the opportunity to study from some of the most qualified teachers, who have helped me learn and understand the some of the most complex courses and its application on international system. TMUC has been great learning experience for me.

Yaqub Babar

BSc Politics and IR

Just like all other students, I was confused on where to get my degree from, but my decision to study from a recognised institution: TMUC was undoubtedly worth it. This institute provides students with the best possible faculty, a friendly environment and brings within you a much competitive person by simply unlocking your potentials. Get involved and enjoy the rewards of the community and engagement, as the best part about studying University of London programme from TMUC makes you study hard and get success in the best means possible.

At TMUC we strive to engage alumni through programs on and off campus that expand and strengthen the connections between them and our alma mater. The Alumni can come home to TMUC to mentor students exploring postgrad opportunities, participate in engaging discussions, deliver guest lectures, network with fellow alumni, discover new ideas, help in career placements for fellow alumni and so much more. This year an Alumni association has been founded at TMUC with the aim to create an environment in which TMUC students always stay connected to the University. Now that you turn another leaf in your story, stay connected with us.
